

Administrative Markup

The DLP increasingly supports the markup of administrative documents such as minutes from official bodies within the university, academic policies (e.g., Academic Handbook) and so on.

This page will document particular challenges or questions as we use the TEI to encode these kinds of documents.